PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, cooperation between parents of school children and teachers in our schools is essential in order to bring the home and school into closer relationship; and

WHEREAS, the Congress of Parents and Teachers in South Dakota is aware of this fact and in the programs and plans of that organization exerts effort and influence toward achievement for more cooperation of parents of school children and teachers; and

WHEREAS, Congress of Parents and Teachers in South Dakota has been successful in achieving the goal of establishing interest by parents in our South Dakota school systems; and

WHEREAS, the continued successful operation of our school system in South Dakota depends in part upon the interest of parents in the work that teachers are doing; and

WHEREAS, South Dakota is fortunate in that we have active Parent-Teacher organizations in many communities throughout the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 1954, as and urge all citizens of our State to cooperate with the Congress of Parents and Teachers in their effort to enroll members and strengthen the relationship between the homes and schools of South Dakota in order that they may provide the finest school facilities possible for our boys and girls.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of September, 1954.
